Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue will inform you of any medical treatments to be administered, the anticipated length of the foster-care period, the objectives of each particular placement (restoring to health, rearing to adoptable age, socialization, etc.), and any other restrictions or expectations we may have.

You will be expected to keep the animal safe and secure, return it to Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue when requested to do so, and not promise the animal to anyone, or imply that you have the authority to approve a potential adoption. Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue retains ownership of all animals placed in foster care, and will make all decisions regarding the adoption and placement of the animals fostered.

By you keeping this animal safe and secure, you agree to not leave it in a backyard, abandon it in a street, give it away, take it to a shelter, or hurt it in any way.

Unless otherwise arranged, the foster parent is responsible for providing all food, litter, bedding, food bowls, and toys for the animal while it is in their care at home.

Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue makes itself responsible for any medical expense the dog may need. It is your responsibility as a foster parent to report any changes in health and behavior so we can take the necessary actions. You must notify Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue if your foster dog is in need of emergency vet care so that we may point you to one of our veterinarians. If a veterinarian or a licensed professional finds that you or anyone in the household is responsible for intentionally or negligently causing the animal harm by means of physical contact or exposure to unhealthy environments, an investigation will be conducted that may lead to criminal charges for animal cruelty.

If for any reason, you can no longer foster the animal, Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue will take it back and place it in a different foster home. If you go on vacation, or are moving, please notify us. You are not to abandon the animal in the street, sell it, or use it for any purpose other than as a pet/companion. If the animal gets lost, please notify us immediately.

I have read and understand the statements above. I certify that all the information contained in this application is true and correct. I understand that although Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue takes reasonable care to screen animals for foster care placement, it makes no guarantees relating to the animals' health, behavior, or actions. I understand that I receive foster care animals at my own risk and can decline to accept any animal for which Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue has asked me to provide care. I acknowledge that Heartbeat at Your Feet Animal Rescue is not responsible for any property damage or personal injury suffered by me, members of my household, including my own animals, or any third parties during a foster placement, and I assume liability to provide adequate controls to prevent such damage or injury.
